A Superfedeas for the Good Behaviour.

Note, that upon good Sureties taken, (for the Good Behaviour) a Crom. 233,
Superfedeas of the Good Behaviour may be granted as for the Peace, mutatis mutandis.

Note also, that a Superfedeas de Capias in dictatum da Transgression; and so of an Exigent, may be granted by the Justice of peace out of Sessions:
For otherwise it were mischievous for the party, as well by reason of his Imprisonment, as also for that he may be Out-lawed before the Sessions, if the Justice of peace might not take Sureties of him for his appearance;
and all is but to appear to answer to the Indictment.

And Mr. Crompton is of opinion, that these may be granted by any one Crom. 234 Justice of peace; with whom agreeeth the Book of Entries. But Mr. Lambert thinketh it not in the lawful power of any one Justice of Peace to grant such Superfedeas at this day, but that it must be done by two Justices
